Footnotes

ADMIRAL ALEX lightly urged from the starting gate, displayed keen early lick, discouraging OUR DARK KNIGHT into the role of stalker, after an abbreviated head to head duel, continued to set speedy fractions, well out in the track and with the rider applying rating tactics, began to shake free of his closest pursuer nearing the quarter pole, was placed to a light hand ride after settling into the stretch, had the rider take several long looks back for any potential danger between the three-sixteenths pole and the sixteenth pole, and after seeing none in sight, was geared down in the late stages. OUR DARK KNIGHT away well at the start, showed initial intentions for grabbing early command, going head to head with the top one right after the break, had a change of heart, easing back a bit under a good hold, switched over to be positioned from the outside while stalking the leader, remained on hold and within good striking distance while travelling from about the four path around the bend, began to lose contact with the top one approaching the top of the lane,but continued onward willingly to procure the place. KEEP ME INFORMED was along for the show. REGAL WARRIOR saved ground to no avail. AE PIT was through after three-quarters.
