Footnotes
With the starting gate positioned at a slight distance off the outer fence, FUTURE GENERATION (IRE) came out of it in good order, had the shortest trek of all getting taken over to the inside although requiring her to still go at least half of the width of the course, tracked the front runners from near the pocket, with the pilot atop with a firm grip on the reins in the initial stages, eased her way more into the two path early on the turn, bided time for a while then moved when ready to split rivals at the five-sixteenths pole and take over the lead, scampered away during the run through the furlong grounds, extended the winning margin, crossing the wire under very light urging. MUCH REJOICING chased three wide, proved no match for the top one while rallying for second. WHIPSAW CITY (FR) prompted the pacesetter from the two path, took over for a brief period of time midway on the turn, got overhauled soon afterwards by the eventual winner and steadily tired after turning for home. SYLVESTRIS (IRE) brushed at the start, was guided over to the inside before reaching the end of the backstretch, rode the rail until the five-sixteenths marker, got angled outward until five wide by upper stretch, made no headway on the front runners. SENZA RETE (IRE) lightly bumped from both sides at the break, raced along the outside and was outrun. NOTASSHARPASUTHINK brushed with SENZA RETE at the start, departed the backstretch from the four path, launched an abbreviated move shortly before completing a half, then backed away when unable to sustain it. AGATHA K vied for command from the inside, was asked to pick up the pace about halfway around the turn, yielded nonetheless and faltered.
