Footnotes
With the starting gate spread across the outer half of the turf course, YES IT'S PINK sat well reserved in the middle of the field from off the rail, and at times from between rivals, picked up interest late on the turn and got angled three wide into the stretch, took off after the leader, initially still under light encouragement, left the three-sixteenths pole under much stronger urging and soon grabbed the lead, drew off to win with none even remotely around at the end, crossing the wire under a brisk hand ride. JENNYS CREEK departed the backstretch three wide, but was one path closer to the rail with the lead approaching the quarter pole rider atop sitting chilly, was given some light encouragement once the eventual winner made her presence felt in upper stretch, had that rival drew alongside in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, with a couple of lanes of separation between them, then got set down to much stronger handling, proved no match in short order, held on well enough though to salvage second. GOING GOING GONE three wide and roused by the five-sixteenths pole, got the show award. SILVER MAST got off a sluggish start, began to pick up the pace after going a half, was forced to fan five wide into the stretch to steer around tiring foes at that juncture and took the last major check. NEW DOO chased three wide and folded. THETRAINWASGONE gained the advantage soon after the start and made the long trek over to the inside in time for the run around the bend, showed the way with another pair applying pressure in paths two and three respectively, had the outer one of that twosome take over prior to the quarter pole and gave way. MANHATTAN KITTY raced along the outside, was urged on the turn, tired. SHEEDBDAWON three wide, tired. MCGILLYCUDDY'S GAL four wide departing the backstretch, was always outrun. KATE ME MATE given some motivation near the right shoulder with the stick, ducked inward sharply leaving the starting gate, had the good fortune of having half the width of the course to be get straightened away and did so, rushed up along the rail down the backstretch, faded while continuing to hug the hedge. RT. SIXTY SEVEN contested the pace from between opponents on the turn and gave way.
