Footnotes

CURLYS DAY chased the pace on the inside, was roused in the turn and closed between horses to just get up for the win. OUR BOY TIMMY was mid field, wound up for the stretch drive in the turn and rallied going three wide down the lane, just missing at the wire. MANSIONES pressed the pace, then vied for the lead with BULLSEYEPERFECT through the turn and hung tough, faltering at the wire for a game third. ANGEL OF THE WIND was near the back, angled out at the three eighths pole, making a bid around the turn but hung in the lane. BULLSEYEPERFECT made the lead, dueling through the turn but gave way at the eighth pole. MAGICNCOURT trailed the field, four wide and never fired.
