Footnotes

SAPELLO CANTADOR rated from outside, was four wide on the second turn, floated out further entering the lane, gained a slight advantage inside the last furlong and narrowly prevailed under hand urging. DUELING DOM broke alertly, showed the way just off the inside in hand, battled gamely between rivals in the lane, drifted out a bit after entering the last furlong and did not have enough deep stretch. GROUSHY APADANA boxed in on the first turn, moved to the rail on the backstretch, saved ground through the second turn, fought hard in the stretch, did not have enough late and drifted out some nearing the wire. DESERT DUDE pressed DUELING DOM from just outside, also battled well between horses in the stretch, was crowded briefly by DUELING DOM inside the last eighth and did not have enough left. SPINNING TOUCH settled at the back from inside, came into the lane from just off the rail, rallied under a drive, lost his path nearing the wire and was steadied.
