Footnotes

GOLDEN WAGER was sent to share the lead between horses, in path three on the turn, angled in some after moving clear leaving the bend then steadily opened up under a mild drive. BYE BYE BUBBA was steadied when his path narrowed nearing the end of the first furlong, lost ground widest through the bend, took over second upper stretch then gradually lugged in as he widened for the place. NIGHTNSHININGARMOR was prominent early just off the rail, in path three into the stretch and lacked the needed late bid. ARCHIE'S DREAM duelled for the lead just outside GOLDEN WAGER, drifted out to path five into the stretch and gradually wore down. HOT FLAME ran in contention between horses for more than a quarter mile then ran evenly. RING OF THE RUN was an early factor inside but lacked a stretch bid. JIM KAAT a step slow at the break, was then steadied behind traffic, advanced outside but gave way on the turn.
