Footnotes

PATRIOT JOE broke inward, contested the pace from inside, moved ahead while just off the rail through the bend, was under steady urging in the lane and held HAY MAN MARK at bay. HAY MAN MARK soon vied for the lead from outside, moved in beside PATRIOT JOE early in the turn, could not keep up leaving the bend, did not relent through the stretch, was closing the gap late and clearly second best. NITE GAZE R F somewhat reluctant to load, showed first, was prominent from outside on the backstretch, lost ground five wide taking the turn, drifted out to the middle of the track for the stretch run, found best stride too late the last eighth and caught EL CAPI TOO for the show. EL CAPI TOO in contention between horses, was two then three wide taking the bend, fought for third in the lane but did not have enough late. GOODBYE VEGAS broke inward, improved position from inside through the turn, battled for third in the stretch and but slowly yielded in the waning yards. SWIPE THE GOLD prominent between rivals early, angled in on the turn, was just off the inside entering the lane, angled out for a clear path upper stretch but had little to offer. GO BIRD GO a step slow at the break, stayed well off the inside throughout and showed little. EL TIGRERO forced in at the break, was also an early factor between horses, faded four wide on the bend, weaved upper stretch and steadily gave way.
