Footnotes

THE LASHER the cleanly and was never far from the lead while saving ground to the quarter pole, shifted out into the lane, gained command a furlong out and held driving. WHITE MARK lagged to the second turn, rallied from off the rail into the lane, closed willing from the inside to the deep stretch then moved around HAPPY ONE and continued to rally. BLACK APPEAL settled early three wide, remained out on the second turn while commencing his rally and closed steadily. EXCLUSIVE VOW raced unhurried from off the rail early, saved ground on the second turn and closed from between horses in the final furlong. HAPPY ONE was close up from the outside early, took command nearing the half mile pole, dropped inside and drew clear on the second turn but slackened leaving the furlong pole. DINO AND TONY was not asked for speed early, came four wide on the second turn and finished with some speed. LT. COMMANDER was void of speed to the stretch then closed too late. NOHILLFORACLIMBER took command from off the rail into the first turn, gave up the advantage on the backstretch, slipped back on the second turn but kept to his task in the lane. ATTABOY JUNIOR raced up inside early on the first turn to stalk the leaders to the second turn then stopped and pulled up lame but walked off.
