Footnotes

CROZET rated kindly to the half, commenced a bid when asked into the second turn, shifted three wide into the stretch, rallied to the lead a furlong out then was under steady pressure while drawing clear. KURLICUE (IRE) dueled for the lead from the rail to the second turn, responded to urging to the stretch, could not stay with the winner but was second best. LOST BRIDE was a pace factor between horses to the half, came two wide to the stretch but tired in the drive. WEST COAST MONARCH sucked back at the start then lunged from the gate, lagged well back to the second turn then closed the gap to the wire. SECRET CORSAGE attended the pace three wide to the half, bid two wide on the second turn but weakened through the drive.
