Footnotes

SOMETHING FIERCE broke cleanly and chased WHATA SOLDIER into the lane, wore down that rival leaving the furlong pole then drew clear driving. WHATA SOLDIER sprinted clear early, extended his advantage into the stretch but could not stall the winner. EASTERN ACCENT lacked good early speed, came through inside on the turn to reach contention in the upper stretch then lost much of his punch. WALTER RINGER lagged early, dropped inside for the drive and finished willingly without being a serious threat. LAVA MAN stalked the pace early but had no response when the real test came. EL HALITO had speed to the turn and gave way between horses. FRISCO FOG settled early, raced four wide on the turn but came up empty. FUSAICHI'S DANCE was always outrun.
