Footnotes

BALTIC SHORE stalked pace until he gained the lead going into the backstretch then relinquished the lead at the next jump pressing the pace from there, he drew even in the final turn dueling briefly after the last jump then drew clear. SERGEANT KARAKORUM was in the back most of the race, rallied in the final turn to be right there jumping the last and had a late kick through the stretch. DUGAN set the pace for most of the race, had a slight advantage going to the last jump then weakened. IMPERIAL GIN was close up until the third last jump then flattened out. OREBANKS was within striking distance at the third last but could not gain further ground. FOG ISLAND raced out the back and passed tired rivals. BRAVE PROSPECT failed to menace. WELL FASHIONED raced in the back and was no threat. MOVING VIOLATION through after a mile and a half and was never a factor.
