Footnotes
TEMPLE CITY bobbled slightly at the start, took the early lead and angled in, set the pace along the inside under a long hold, responded when rivals loomed leaving the final turn, kicked clear again under urging and proved best. UNUSUAL SUSPECT saved ground stalking the pace, inched forward on the last turn, came out into the stretch, could not catch the winner but gamely held second. RICHARD'S KID was in a good position tracking the winner outside the runner-up most of the way, also came out into the stretch and lacked the needed response but clearly bested the others. DELIGHTFUL KISS allowed to settle a bit off the rail, advanced outside a rival on the backstretch, continued off the inside, came out into the stretch and lacked a further response. LIFELINE pulled his way along inside chasing the pace, came a bit off the fence nearing the second turn, continued just off the rail on the backstretch, fell back on the final turn and weakened.
