Footnotes

PHONE THE DIVA raced unhurried outside foes to the backstretch, made a steady advance to challenge four deep approaching the far turn, took charge nearing upper stretch and widened her advantage through the lane while being kept to pressure. SIPPIN' DEVIL went readily to the fore, dictated the pace off the inside racing to the far turn, couldn't match the winner but continued well to prove second best. ELLS EDITOR, allowed to settle in early stages while saving some ground, angled out on the backstretch to race four wide on the far turn and continued to improve her position to the end. MY TIME NOW, unhurried in early stages while saving ground racing just inside the leaders, angled out midway through the backstretch but couldn't produce a closing bid. ERICKA'S LASS, forwardly placed along the inside, pressed inside a rival to the far turn and gave way nearing upper stretch. WILLA CATHER bobbled at the start and never menaced thereafter.
