Footnotes

BOUQUET BOOTH tracked the pace three wide, took over mid way through the turn, shook clear and widened. RATTLIN GYSPY was away slowly, tucked in to save ground, closed the gap through the turn, shifted out and kept on well to earn the place. GRAND ILLUMINATION settled in hand, ranged up four wide through the turn, was unable to match strides with her stable mate entering the stretch, weakened further in the drive and settled for the show. CASCADILLA FALLS contended along the inside, took an awkward step near the eleven-sixteenths pole, checked hard losing position, leveled into stride off of the inside, angled out leaving the turn but came up empty in the lane. RIDGESTER was jostled between horses at the start, settled into stride four wide but failed to menace. SHARP TONGUE LADY was away alertly, angled in to set the pace, was headed near the five-sixteenths pole and gave way readily thereafter.
