Footnotes
VEILED PROPHET was unhurried into stride and settled at the tail of the field, took closer order through the second turn, swung five wide and reeled in the leaders inside the furlong marker, opened clear then held his diminishing advantage to prevail. HARLAN STREET settled saving ground tucked in along the hedge, shifted out and split horses to commence his advance, finished well and was getting to the winner with every stride. MALTESE DOG opened clear to set the pace off of the inside, controlled the issue to the final sixteenth but weakened slightly from between horses and grudgingly gave way. GRESHAM tracked the pace three deep, came four wide to make his bid, made a steady gain and was making up ground. VICTORY NOTION was allowed to settle into stride, angled in to make a mild bid and improved his position. FAITHOPE settled in the second flight and failed to respond. PROVE YOURSELF attended the pace on the outside, but came up empty after six furlong and faded. BLUE LION was well placed just off of the hedge, made a middle move between horses to range into striking distance, was caught in tight and steadied near the seven-sixteenths marker, angled out to be clear but lacked a response thereafter. BADGER BARRY prompted the pace along the inside to the stretch and dropped out.
