Footnotes

MY TYPHOON (IRE), a bit sluggish and awkward at the break, raced in hand four or five wide, took over in the upper stretch, then was hard ridden to last. ISLA COZZENE settled near the inside early, swung out six wide leaving the second turn, then was getting to the winner at the end. SILVER CUP (IRE) broke a bit awkwardly, leaned in bumping BE ENVIED, was never far back, tracked the leaders four or five wide and failed to muster a final response. WINNING SEASON drifted in bumping THATSWHATIMEAN at the start, gained the lead, raced near the inside, accomplished modest fractions in hand, then weakened when straightened into the stretch. FLYING CIRCLE, well placed between foes three or four wide for six furlongs, failed to keep pace. THATSWHATIMEAN broke in a bit of a tangle, was bumping lightly by WINNING SEASON, raced in a striking position in behind horses to the stretch and was empty in the drive. BE ENVIED, bumped at the start by SILVER CVUP (IRE) and forced in, was taken in hand, eased out four or five wide on the backstretch, continued off the inside around the far turn and into the stretch, then tired.
