Footnotes

MINESHAFT came out at the start bumping CRIMSON HERO, was rated in behind foes for six furlongs, came out five wide for the drive and drove clear late. REVISED NOTE, close up inside from the outset, took over in the upper stretch while dueling, briefly was clear but couldn't last. ROAR OF THE TIGER leaned in at the start bumping CRMISON HERO, settled in behind horses, lacked room in the upper stretch, found an opening five wide between horses in the last sixteenth and slowly was gaining. CRIMSON HERO, bumped at the start from both sides, was outrun for six furlongs while in behind horses, came out nine or 10 wide for the drive and offered a mild gain. HARBOR PASS gained a slight lead early while dueling from the outside, lost the advantage to POWDER KEG, continued close up into the stretch and weakened. UNBRIDLED TRICK, never far back while inside, made a solid rail bid into the final furlong but flattened out late. SECOND TUESDAY, outrun to the stretch, passed only tired ones. MONARCHOFTHEGLEN duck in at the start and bumped the side of the gate, was never far back while following the leaders five wide, continued forwardly into the stretch and flattened out. POWDER KEG went up early to force the pace from between foes, gained a slight edge, held on well until the stretch and tired. DIANO tired upon going a half after racing between foes five or six wide. QUAKEMAKER settled inside and failed to menace.
