Footnotes
SPEEDY JOSH was with the pace racing off the rail to midway up the backstretch, dropped back moving up the straight then angled four wide in the far turn and rallied back to collar the leader through deep stretch and quickly be moving clear. SNEAKIE PETESKI was with the leaders from four wide to challenge heading up the backstretch, drew clear and assumed command through the far turn then continued evenly and could not hold the winner safe late. SIGN ME UP saved ground to move up between rivals heading up the backstretch, drifted wide in the far turn and had no late run. TWO SCOOPS stalked the pace racing four to five wide, was carried out in the far turn and could not threaten in the lane. BLUFF CENTER ROAD hesitated at the break to come away last, saved ground and moved up while not a threat. MR. MCGAUNASH contested the pace racing three to four wide and tired. ONE LAST YANKEE followed the pace racing three to four wide and tired. SPEEDY GOLD ducked into the gap after the break and was always outrun.
