Footnotes
ALL THE GLORY stalked the pace, moved three wide to command in mid stretch then was fully extended to last. FALCONHURST , rated two to three wide mid turn, swung out five wide leaving the three sixteenths marker and closed gamely. RICHIE THE THIEF , never far back while four and five wide around the turn, closed steadily. UNLIKELY HERO set the pace two wide into the lane, dueled inside the winner past the eighth pole and gave way grudgingly. BATON saved ground under rating, lacked room leaving the eighth pole, altered out and finished with interest. URBAN SPEED lagged back through three furlongs while removed from the rail then had some belated interest. D DUBAI had dead aim along the inside, angled out in upper stretch and gave way. DEFUSE DEBEAST chased the pace and weakened. WITH OPTIONS saved ground nearing the lane and lacked a bid. WOHALI , four wide between rivals, chased into the turn and dropped back.
