Footnotes
TONIGHT AT ELEVEN bumped at the start, gained stalking position from slightly off the fence, moved up to force the pace, bid alongside rival on the second turn, battled to just outside sixteenth marker then kicked away under urging. FOREST PRINCE conceded lead to rivals into the first turn from along the rail, shifted out, advanced and challenged three wide, gained lead, resisted inside foe later on second turn and well into stretch but yielded late and just lasted for second. EAST FROM WEST caught five wide into and around initial turn, remained widest of all on the backstretch then four wide around the second bend, rallied bravely from the outside and just missed collaring foe for second. BONK caught four wide and between rivals early, continued off the fence and between horses, came in some entering the lane and was outfinished for the show. PISA PLAYBOY settled inside, chased on two wide path most of the way and bested others. NITRO ACTIVE settled off the rail, chased three wide into first turn, was three abreast into the backstretch, remained on same path and lacked any rally. JAKEY BOY angled over and chased three wide into first turn, remained bit off the rail, steadied off heels leaving the backstretch, came four wide into the lane and never threatened. PEACOCK ALLIANCE bumped at the start, dueled inside to the first turn, dropped back from the inside and weakened. STUFDRMSRMADEOF was off slow and bit inward, taken to the rail early, saved ground thereafter and was outrun. WHITE MARK bobbled slightly and was bumped from both sides in opening strides, recovered and sped to the front, shook free into the backstretch then surrendered lead and gave way.
