Footnotes
BOLD CHIEFTAIN broke alertly but was taken back off the pace and gained a good striking position from off the rail, moved forward three wide on the second turn, set out after MONTEREY JAZZ in the upper stretch to rally determinedly and was up in the final strides. MONTEREY JAZZ did not break real alertly but gained command into the first turn under rating tactics. set a moderate pace to the second turn then kicked well clear, maintained his advantage to the furlong pole but could not hold in the late stages. RED SUN pressed MONTEREY JAZZ from the outside under a snug hold, did not go with that rival on the second turn, but kept to his task and was coming back on late. MASSONE was not asked for speed early while racing outside KELLY LEAK, began to advance on the second turn, came three wide to the stretch and closed a gap without being a serious factor. RUN IT settled early three wide, raced off the rail on the second turn and lacked the needed response. GOLDEN BALLS (IRE) was forwardly placed from the inside early but gradually faded after six furlongs. KELLY LEAK was never a factor. SIR AL (IRE) saved ground to no avail.
