Footnotes
SARATOGA STORM broke alertly to set the pace from inside, settled into the stretch with a comfortable advantage then increased his lead under pressure. BALRAJ broke slow, lagged to the stretch, angled well outside at the head of the stretch and finished best of all. MY DADDIO broke slow, rallied four wide into the stretch and outlasted the others. MIKE'S KONG raced wide and weakened. BIDHAM took up briefly from between horses near the quarter pole and never threatened. DON'T GLANCE BACK saved ground to no avail. CAN MONEY was outrun. MICHAELS WEST ACRE prompted the winner's pace for three furlongs, tired badly and was eased to the wire far back.
