Footnotes

APPEALING PRIDE was well placed for five furlongs, surged to the front from outside on the turn then drew away under a vigorous hand ride. GOLD POST opened a clear advantage in the early stages, set the pace to the turn and held well for the place. MILLY MILLU bobbled at the start, rallied along the inside on the turn and finished willingly for a share. SURVIRSH failed to threaten while six wide. EVENING BLUES raced between horses for six furlongs and lacked a strong closing bid. ALY MODE was never a factor. KERRI'S COURAGE was used up trying to keep the early pace.
