Footnotes
QUICK APPEAL raced well placed while saving ground behind the dueling leaders, eased out three wide and found room to split horses launching his bid into the stretch, quickly gained control near the eighth pole then drew off under pressure. THEPOSSE'SAFTERME took up sharply when lacking racing room attempting to rally approaching the stretch, angled five wide for clearance turning for home and rallied mildly. GENERAL GUTI contested the pace from between horses, remained in close contention to midstretch and tired. BOY G. held a short advantage disputing the pace from along the rail and was done after five furlongs. LANCE'S SONG launched a four wide bid turning for home, could not sustain the rally and gave way steadily through the final furlong. DOC GREEN was outrun. WELL TANNED PREZ was pinched back after the start, rushed up and steadied after the opening furlong, joined the l eaders three wide midway the backstretch but had nothing left after a half and tired badly.
