Footnotes

MANHATTAN FOX settled back inside, edged closer through the backstretch, advanced in traffic on the final turn then dug in under a hardy drive to get up late yards and was inching away toward the wire. GAELIC STORM stalked the pace inside, eased to even terms three wide near the seven sixteenths pole, contested a slim advantage on the final turn, dueled clear a furlong away but was caught just inside the sixteenth pole and yielded nearing the wire. FLEET APPEAL, off the pace while just off the hedge, bid easing five wide on the final turn but leveled off through the lane. EXCELLENT SOLDIER , unhurried inside, started a drive at the hedge entering the stretch but flattened stride the final furlong. LATER GATER, off the pace two deep, angled six wide leaving the quarter pole and finished evenly to pass tiring rivals. ASSORTED COLORS had a slim lead two deep the opening turn, stalked the pace through the backstretch, recovered brief slim control while between horses approaching the final turn then weakened in the stretch. FAIR WEATHER STAN was outrun. TRUE DANCER rated a short lead at the hedge to the seven sixteenths pole, was pressured into the final turn and dueled close to the five sixteenths pole before fading. MICHAEL RULES stalked the pace in the four path on the backstretch, gave close chase on the final turn then weakened in the stretch. ROAR OF THE SURGE was outrun.
