Footnotes
OLD SCUDDER stalked from between horses, went for the lead four wide into the second turn, angled in beside MR. JINGLES leaving that bend, took over upper stretch, was clear with a sixteenth left, gradually drifted out in the late going but held on under steady urging. BALLACOLLA gradually progressed while toward the outside, angled in entering the second turn to just off the rail, swung five wide into the stretch, steadily closed in and was easily second best. KAHOK shared the lead briefly from inside, was outrun nearing the first bend, steadily along the rail behind traffic shortly after that, altered out once clear, made his bid four wide on the second turn, was no match for the top pair the final eighth but won his battle for third. FURLONG BABY was boxed in from inside on the backstretch, got through two wide upper stretch, could only duel for third in the late going and narrowly missed. MR. JINGLES contested the pace between rivals, moved ahead nearing the first turn, gradually angled in, had the rail into the lane and slowly wore down the final furlong. BLUE PRINCE dueled for the lead outside MR. JINGLES for six furlongs then began to fade. EYES FOR HANNAH was not a factor in a ground-saving trip. CHARMIN' CHECKERS hesitated at the break, stayed off the rail and showed little.
