Footnotes

SARDIS broke alertly to set a pressured pace into the stretch, edged clear and maintained her advantage under energetic handling. FRUITS unhurried, rallied determinedly three wide through the stretch and finished second best. PEACEFUL PLACE was bumped entering the first turn, went up three wide to press the pace after a quarter, remained a sharp factor the balance of the trip and finished with good courage. POINTS ON pressed the pace between horses into the stretch then was outfinished. QUOIT QUICK was bounced around between horses entering the first turn then went evenly. VEGAS ALARM came out a bit bumping QUOIT QUICK entering the first turn then was through early. TALKING POINT was also bounced around between horses entering the first turn then checked over PEACEFUL PLACE'S heels and failed to reach contention. DAWN EDITION bid five wide before a half then flattened out.
