A BRIDLED TIGER brushed with B. MURRAY after the start, chased the pace three wide, advanced leaving the three-sixteenths pole, was carried five wide into the lane, bid outside in midstretch and hung through the final sixteenth. BIG CHAMP quickly sprinted clear to set a fast but uncontested pace along the rail, drifted three wide into the lane, vied inside past midstretch then tired late. ME TARZAN lacked speed while racing two wide around the turn, swung to the extreme outside in upper stretch, lacked the needed rally and brushed with BRAHMS LULLABY approaching the wire.
