Footnotes
LOUD RAVENS quickly established control and rated clear inside, came under a drive approaching the head of the lane and held well with steady stretch handling. KING HARRY, off the early pace toward mid track, started a bid leaving the seven sixteenths pole, saved some ground on the final turn then dueled clear for place. WHY SHIRLEY WHY rated close inside, gave chase leaving the half mile pole but was outfinished in the duel for place. FORTY WINKS settled back from the early pace while saving ground, started a bid leaving the half mile pole then leveled off down the lane. DASHING MAX, well back off the rail, passed tired rivals. UP TO MISCHIEF was no factor toward the outside. FREE HUMOR stalked the early pace two deep, was under a drive leaving the seven sixteenths pole then faded on the final turn. MILLWOOD kept close to the early pace about the three path but started to fade after five eighths.
