Footnotes

FIERCE PAJAMAS stalked the pace off the rail, took a slim lead inside the seven sixteenths pole, was urged away at the quarter pole, headed into the lane, briefly gave away the lead at the sixteenth pole but dug in under determined handling to recover the edge. BANNER YIELD stalked the pace about the three path, bid saving ground nearing the quarter pole, challenged the winner at the head of the lane, dueled to a slim brief lead a sixteenth away but grudgingly ceded the closing yards. SKEETER'S CASTLE, unhurried inside, bid leaving the seven sixteenths pole, steadied lightly at the heels of Banner Yield past the quarter pole and finished well. STOP THE BULL settled back off the rail, bid toward the five sixteenths pole, steadily improved rounding the final turn but flattened stride through the lane. COUNTRY HELLO, well back outside, rounded the final turn about the four path and had no further response. GARDEN TAVERN rated a short lead inside, was challenged past the seven sixteenths pole and remained in close chase to the quarter pole before fading. MACHO STYLE was not a factor. LOOKINATDBRITESIDE chased the early pace off the rail bud faded after a half mile. TYLLA rated close to the early pace off the rail then faded leaving the first turn.
