CROWN COURT settled off the pace off the rail, bid leaving the five sixteenths pole, angled five wide leaving the final turn then leveled off after achieving the place spot. IN MY CROSSHAIRS settled back toward the outside, bid leaving the three eighths pole, saved some ground on the final turn then leveled off down the lane. FROG TOWN ROAD settled close about the three path, gave chase leaving the half mile pole and held aim to the quarter before beginning to fade. PROUD ERA rated close to the early pace inside but faded rounding the second turn. FLANK DA MAN stalked the early pace off the rail, gave chase leaving the half mile pole then faded toward the final turn. NICK FROM ARVERNE was not a factor.
