Footnotes
NAVY SEAL SIX prompted the pace from the rail around the first turn, eased two wide near the half-mile pole to prompt two wide from there, steadily gained through the lane and was up in the final strides. SIR FLANAGAN set the pace two wide between foes around the first turn, cleared and angled in nearing the half-mile, set the pace inside from there and led until the final strides. IN CONFIDENCE was devoid of speed along the inside, circled four and five wide around the far turn, continued on his left lead in the lane and rallied for the show. MY FIRST SIP raced along the rail and rallied belatedly. LONG SHADOW saved ground to no avail. TEMPERATE WAYS stalked the pace three wide and came up empty. BEAR'S DELITE chased the pace two wide, raced four wide around the far turn and faded.
