Footnotes
LOVE IN THE RAIN set a pressured pace inside, dug in to the challenge of Evil Lad midway on the turn, edged away from that one in the upper stretch and held on under steady encouragement. ST. JOHNSWOOD chased the pace from the three and four paths, dueled the length of the stretch for place and finished well. EVIL LAD put some early pressure on the winner while two deep, held aim through the turn but was outfinished in the duel for place. ITZMIN drafted at the winner's heels near the rail through the backstretch, came inside that one leaving the turn but had little left in the stretch. BROWNSTONE gave chase toward mid track though was not a factor.
