Footnotes
CASTLE CLOWN set the pace along the rail, drew clear midway around the far turn and widened under mild stretch urging. COUNT TRUCKEE pressed the pace two wide, was no match for the winner from the three-sixteenths pole and held on for the place. KAY ONE was bumped just after the start, chased the pace two wide and lacked a rally. SHUTTERED CAT was bumped just after the start, raced along the rail and failed to menace. SIR TOBY saved ground and was never a factor. COUNTRY HOME was outrun while racing two and three wide. BASCOTE raced three wide around the first turn, was done early and retreated inside.
