Footnotes
KING HARRY settled close to the early pace off the rail, moved to the front three wide nearing the three eighths pole, was soon clear, widened on the final turn then taken in hand late yards. CHRISTMAS HOLLADAY, well back off the rail, bid leaving the three eighths pole, split horses nearing the head of the lane and finished evenly in place. VANDER GELDER settled back about the three path, improved near the rail rounding the final turn then leveled off down the lane. ECLIPTICAL'S ELVIS came away awkwardly, promptly took the lead, rated inside to the half mile pole, pressured from that point, was caught nearing the three eighths pole and faded toward the final turn. FLYING POWER, off the early pace about the three path, made a mild bid in mid track leaving the second turn but leveled off four wide on the final turn. BUCKEY ROAD kept close to the early pace about the three path, had aim rounding the second turn, was pressured into the backstretch but faded toward the final turn. DEFINITE HUMOR was not a factor. SUAVE FOX, just off the pace and off the rail, faded after three quarters. DANGER ANGEL settled back toward the outside and was through after a half mile. FORTY WINKS saved ground off the pace and was through after a half mile.
