Footnotes
J W BLUE off a step slow, raced back and along the inside, angled out sharply when advancing out of the final turn, outside bid, finished up willingly. BLUEGRASS JAM unhurried early, advanced along the inside out of the final turn, waited behind a wall of horses past the furlong marker, moved out, up for the place. ANARCHY broke on top, set the pace, gave ground grudgingly when confronted in the drive. SMACK RIDGE forwardly placed toward the rail, continued within striking distance, tight, blocked, finished up evenly when clear. PARENT'S HONOR prompted the pace off the inside, brushed nearing the furlong marker, weakened. COMMANDER bit slow to settle, moved outside, began to weaken before six furlongs. GREAT EXUMA pressured the early pace, gave way after five furlongs. UNBRIDLED SHERIFF was never involved.
