Footnotes
LIQUOREUX, up close between foes three or four wide in hand early, took over leaving the turn, then was kept to his task to draw well clear. STALWART MEMORY moved to the front two wide early, made the pace for a half, lost the edge to the winner leaving the turn and continued on as second best. ALL STAR LOVER, near the inside to the lane, continued from the rail and earned the show. CANYON DE ORO, bumped at the start by RUBY'S RED SOCKS and squeezed back, was outrun to the lane and improved position while unable to menace. RUBY'S RED SOCKS came out at the break bumping CANYON DE ORO, tracked the pace three abreast into the lane and flattened out. PUNCH was not a factor and six wide in the stretch run. MO FASTER, used early four wide, was done upon going a half.
