Footnotes

ESPRESSO JOE tracked the pace along the inside, got through entering the stretch, drew even a furlong out and drew clear. Following the race ESPRESSO JOE was vanned off. CLIFFORD'S JOY set the pressured pace off of the inside, drifted out a bit leaving the turn, was unable to resist the winner but stayed on to earn the place. THUNDER HIGHWAY stalked the pace in hand, moved up four wide to make his bid, lacked the needed late response and settled for the minor award. BANDMAN contended between horses, angled in entering the stretch but flattened during the drive. ROCKY BEAR was allowed to settle, finished with a belated gain but failed to threaten. HIGH HEIR settled six wide and was never a factor. UPPER CLASS POSH tucked in to save ground but lacked a response when asked. CHUCKIE contended between horses to the stretch and tired. INFALLIBLE contended five wide but came up empty before going a half. HE CAN HE WILL showed little. PACIFIC AVENUE pressed the pace three wide through the turn and stopped.
