Footnotes
RAHYSTRADA vied for the lead from between foes early, reached the front about the sixteenth pole while four or five wide, then was fully extended under left-handed whipping to last. LISSELAN RIGHTCALL, outsprinted early, was carried ten wide on the turn by WAVE LAND SLWE, continued well off the inside and missed. THE ROBARDS REBEL gained the edge inside early, raced three or four wide, lost the advantage to the winner about the sixteenth pole and held on stubbornly. LUSK tracked the pace four wide, loomed a bit wider in the drive but was empty late. BOBBYS HOLIDAY, within striking distance while in behind horses to the lane, flattened out when straightened for the drive. WAVE LAND SQUIRE, up close between foes early, bore out on the turn carrying LISSELAN RIGHTCALL out in the process and faded. DIGGING DEEP showed nothing, lost contact with the field early and was distanced.
