Footnotes
PISH POSH settled in hand off of the inside, wheeled out four wide to launch his bid, reeled in the leaders and steadily edged clear. KARACUDA settled saving ground, closed the gap through the turn, angled out entering the stretch but was unable to reach the winner. FLATTER ME ROSE was unhurried into stride, came three wide, made a late rally between horses but was left with too much to do. SPRINGTIME SPELL vied for the lead three wide, but weakened following a prolonged drive and grudgingly gave way. BOLD PEAKS made a middle move seven wide but failed to sustain the drive. SINGING ROSE prompted the pace between horses to the stretch and retreated. BLACK GIRAFFE vied for the lead four wide, but came up empty before going a half and dropped out. RAINBOW'S SECRET disputed the pace along the inside to the final furlong and faded. CART MARTIAL broke in the air and never recovered.
