Footnotes

RAVADON, never far back, moved five wide nearing the stretch, took over, then was ridden hard to hold sway. PAINT BALLADO, unhurried early, followed the winner five or six wide into the lane and was gaining late. DOUBLE SHOTGUN, never far back, raced in behind horses, lacked room at the quarter-mile ground, worked his way out six wide at the eighth pole and offered a mild gain. LEADING OFF tracked the pace four wide, made a bold run to gain even terms for the lead into the lane and faltered. DR. JOHN T failed to rally. WESTERN OUTLAW drifted in at the start, gained the lead, made the pace to the stretch and faltered. FIRST AT LAST forced the pace for five furlongs and tired. THELIGHTSAREON, forced in at the start by WESTERN OUTLAW, was outrun. COMFORT ME vied for the lead between foes to the far turn and weakened.
