Footnotes
PATRICIA (ARG), reserved early and three wide, inched forward nearing the final quarter, maneuvered five wide into the stretch, took over leaving the sixteenth pole and was under mild encouragement. MOUNTAIN MAMBO drifted out at the start bumping the side of the gate, was outrun to the far turn, rallied five or six wide and was going well at the end. SHESANIDEM gained a slight edge inside while dueling with BEAUGESTE, shook off that one, held a clear advantage for the last eighth but couldn't sustain the needed momentum. BEAUGESTE went up to force the pace from early on while three or four wide, battled forwardly into the upper stretch and weakened. BALLISTIC BABE never rallied. MT. STERLING MARY stalked the pace near the inside to the stretch and flattened out.
