Footnotes

SCOTLAND PLACE settled in behind the leaders early, eased out and split foes in the upper stretch four wide, gained a slight edge, then came out nearing the finish bumping with PAR GOLFER and forced that one out on MARK OF PERFETCTION late. PAR GOLFER, never far back and between horses on the far turn, was five wide for the drive, loomed a solid threat, then was bumped nearing the wire by SCOTLAND PLACE and forced out on MARK OF PERFECTINON at the end. MARK OF PERFECTION, outrun early, came out eight abreast entering the lane, was gaining at the end and was bumped approaching the wire by PAR GOLFER when that one was forced out. AUTUMN GLOW, outrun for six furlongs, circled foes nine wide into the lane and was gaining late. MISS LAABITY maneuvered in early to gain a slight lead, battled forwardly for nearly six furlongs and weakened. COASTAL WOLF forced the pace four wide, gained a slim lead nearing the lane but failed to sustain the needed momentum. SUMMON MI CIELO, well placed four or five wide to the stretch, flattened out in the drive. IF YOU BELIEVE failed to menace. GHAZI DUST, well placed in behind the dueling leaders early, moved inside for the drive, then was taken up leaving the sixteenth pole when MAZEL DANCER crashed into the inner railing. SILVER DOLLAR GIRL never was prominent. MAZEL DANCER forced the pace early while three or four wide, battled for the lead into the lane, gained a slight edge, ducked in suddenly leaving the sixteenth pole, crashed into the inner railing and unseated the rider. FOLLOWING FOUL CLAIMS BY THE RIDERS OF PAR GOLFER AND MARK OF PERFECTION AGAINST SCOTLAND PLACE FOR ALLEGED INTERFERENCE IN THE FINAL SIXTEENTH, STEWARDS DISQUALIFIED SCOTLAND PLACE AND PLACED HER THIRD. STEWARDS ALSO POSTED THE INQUIRY SIGN INVOLVING THE SPILL.
