Footnotes
MORNING LINE raced well reserved off the rail to set the pace, was pressured into the final turn, contested a slim advantage through the turn, dropped back a head from the top of the stretch but dug in under a hard drive to recover control and inch ahead the closing yards. FIRST DUDE stalked the pace about the three path, threatened the winner into the final turn, stayed between horses through the turn, was shut off at the top of the lane, continued pursuit while being eased out in deep stretch and finished strong for place. A LITTLE WARM rated just off the pace about the four path, started his dive past the three eighths pole, was at even terms four wide nearing the quarter pole, dueled with a slim advantage from the head of the lane, grudgingly relented in the final yards and was outfinished for place approaching the wire. EXHI rated just off the pace toward the inside, advanced toward contention along the rail on the final turn, angled to the outside at the top of the stretch though had little response from there. AFLEET AGAIN, unhurried off the rail on the backstretch, had no rally. SEVERE WEATHER raced well back and was never in contention.
