Footnotes
MOUNTAIN JUSTICE settled off the pace, ranged up five wide to challenge turning for home, strongly clear under firm handling. RANDOM MOVE broke on top, allowed the speed to go, continued to race patiently second turn, moved out to be five wide for the drive, finished willingly to be clear for the place, no match winner. FACTION lacked speed, saved some ground in the second turn, briefly lacked clear room upper straight, improved when clear. ALVIN AND DAVID well back, raced three wide through much of the second turn, moved outside for the drive, improved. MAX ME OUT forwardly placed, came in to bother inner rivals in upper stretch, tired. WHY NOT BE PERFECT within striking distance while along the inside turning for home, bumped, bothered upper stretch, finished up evenly. SOUTHERN SAINT got clear soon after the start, set the pace, gave way in the drive when headed by the winner. KELA'S CAJUN four wide through much of the first turn when within striking distance, fanned out five wide into the stretch, fell back. DOUBLE JUMP last away, trailed most of the way, passed some tiring rivals after the issue had been decided. NITECAP forwardly placed for six furlongs, was giving way when pushed in upper stretch, continued to back up. NIBBLES AND BITS remained always back. SICOMORO never close, finished far back.
