Footnotes

COMMANDO KAT was urged to the fore while angling inside, shook clear on the turn, maintained a clear advantage past midstretch and held safe the challenge of GIMME A DOUBLE to the end under steady handling. The latter, in close attendance to the pace between foes early, was eased off the leaders to track along the inside on the turn, was urged to advance while shifting out sharply racing through the stretch impeding several rivals but was going well late. BUDDYBDANCING, caught four deep tracking behind the second flight in early stages, was fanned six wide on the turn racing into upper stretch but continued willingly in that path to close the gap while earning a share. GREYHAWK, prominent three deep in the opening stages, led the second flight into the turn tracking the pacesetter, was forced out a bit by GIMME A DOUBLE midstretch and weakened in late stages. PLAYON PLAYER broke slowly, was steadied along the rail leaving the gap and again entering the turn but continued willingly to improve his position inside foes racing into the stretch. MING GLO settled off the second flight near the inside and made some belated progress racing into the stretch. NO MORE HONEY tracked the pace four wide in the second flight, angled in on the turn to race between foes but had no closing bid. PRAIRIE RIDGE settled outside foes, was fanned seven wide racing into the stretch but made some belated progress. GO POSSE GO tracked off the second flight between foes, shifted out five wide nearing upper stretch, then came up empty after racing in some traffic midstretch. TRUST MORE tracked the pace between foes in the second flight, shifted out four wide nearing upper stretch, was shuffled in traffic near midstretch and steadily faded. JOE MATT settled outside foes in the opening stages and lacked a rally. A NICE SLEWISH BOY was a brief factor inside foes in the second flight but steadily retreated after a half.
