Footnotes
MONEY RULES stalked the pace, closed fastest on the backside to challenge leader into a mid stretch duel and was able to get up in the final stride. CHIEF JUDGE raced four wide while pressing the pace, took the lead at the top of lane but dropped in on rival and was dq'd to 6th. CHASIN THE SUNDOWN was void of early speed, circled the field gaining on the leader but came up short. RED RIVER EXCHANGE was unhurried early but lacked a late response. TOP EMPLOYEE was away alertly setting the pace, faltered after three quarters. CHIEF TWO SPOTS pressed the pace and then weakened. GREAT LAWYER had a wide trip, showed little. WITH AUTHORITY was unhurried early, no factor and outrun. RED BEAU showed good early speed, then had a steady retreat after the half.
