Footnotes
GEAR SHIFT was reserved on the outside to the turn, dropped in, edged up along the rail and closed gamely to be just up. MUQTABE broke alertly, hustled to an open lead before the half mile pole, set all the pace to deep stretch and held off the winner to the final strides. HITTERS LAST OUT attended the pace from the inside to the stretch, shifted out somewhat, loomed in the final furlong and faltered. BEST AFFAIR broke the quickest, was content to track the pace and had little response when more was needed. BOSTON BAKED BEAN had no speed and did not reach contention. CLYDEJA showed brief speed and gradually gave way.
