Footnotes
CLEVER PERFORMANCE had speed from the start pressing the pace three wider for a half, made the lead, set the balance of the pace and prevailed under strong handling. DA BIG DAWG trailed for a half, rallied three wide moving to the winner at the top of the stretch but couldn't get by that one. SAVE N TIME stalked the pace from between horses and went evenly. TEN MARTINIS set a pressured pace for a half then gradually weakened. HELLO FROM HEAVEN pressed the pace between horses for six furlongs then weakened. GOLD PROSPECT with the second flight, lacked a closing response.
