Footnotes
STUDLEY DORIGHT broke in stride, was sent clear, in hand and inside on the turn, under mild urging deep stretch and proved clearly best. COL. BEATY bumped with KING TOM THE GREAT at the start, was hustled along from outside, two and three wide taking the turn, altered in near the sixteenth marker as he rallied, closed the gap and caught MUNSTER DOWN UNDER for second. MUNSTER DOWN UNDER bumped with then leaned on DEVIL'S BEAU briefly, ran closest to STUDLEY DORIGHT from just outside, floated out to path four in the lane, slowly closed the gap deep stretch, was outfinished but easily best of the rest. DEVIL'S BEAU bumped then forced into KING TOM THE GREAT at the start, trailed from inside, angled out four wide entering the stretch and lacked a significant bid. KING TOM THE GREAT bumped twice at the start, showed no speed off the inside, angled in entering the turn then steadily gave way.
